

BUILDING INQUIRIES

BENTLEY-SCHOENEMAN CO. SAYS THEY ARE INCREASING AND BOOM IS APPROACHING

A number of new contracts have been undertaken by the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber Company and the Bentley Brothers say they have about as much on hand right now as they can get material and labor to handle. The studio building they have been constructing for William P. MacMullin on Brand near Wilson avenue is nearing completion and unless something unforeseen occurs should be ready for occupancy inside of ten days.

They report a great many inquiries and good prospects for summer and fall business,—the time par excellence for building before the fall rains begin. From present indications they say, "the sooner the better" will be a good motto for all persons cherishing an intent to build, for a boom is certainly beginning and it is easier to get materials now than it will be when the rush fully develops, and there is more competition to get materials which are short at best as compared with normal times.

New contracts on which the Bentley-Schoenemans are working include:

A two-story house near Occidental College which they are building for Mr. Williamson to be used for student dormitory purposes.

A 5-room one-story house of frame construction for Mrs. E. I. Sawyer on Oak St. near Pacific Ave. The contract includes a garage already built, and it will be ready for occupancy in about thirty days.

Remodeling a house on Burchett street, near Pacific avenue, for H. B. Miller.

A garage and pergola for Mrs. Wilkins on Salem street.

A stone house and garage for Mr. Swartz of La Crescenta.

EAGLE ROCK VOTES ROAD BONDS

On Tuesday Eagle Rock, our lively little neighbor on the east, voted 4 to 1 to issue $90,000 bonds for road improvement. Of the sum voted $33,000 will be used to extend Central avenue to connect with a roadway now under construction in Los Angeles.

THE APRICOT CROP

WAS BIGGEST EVER AND BROUGHT HIGHEST PRICES EVER KNOWN

The Evening News has noted from time to time the progress of the disposal of the immense apricot crop of the Southland, the biggest ever known, which was practically cleaned up over a week ago. Some exceedingly interesting information regarding this and preceding years' crops is found in the following article from the Ventura Free Press:

This has been the greatest season for apricots the state has ever had and the yield has been without precedent and the demand for the product in both processed and dried form is beyond former reckoning. The whole world is fruit hungry after the war which has cut off over a billion people from eating fruits. It has been the good fortune of California to have its most bountiful yields of both apricots and peaches at such a time. The deciduous fruit grower who does not prosper in such a period is never going to make a success in his industry. Seventy-five million dollars is the approximate value of this year's apricot crop in California, and this is considered a conservative estimate by authorities on the fruit situation. Never before have apricots brought $50 a ton in Southern California. A record at the Pomona cannery during thirty-one years shows that the average price paid for apricots has been $16.45 a ton. The highest, up to this year, was in 1890, when $35 was paid, but there have been the seasons of 1893, 1897, 1903, 1911 and 1912, when as low as $8 and $10 was paid. In 1914, the year of the breaking out of the war in Europe, $5 and $6 a ton was paid for apricots at the canneries. That season hundreds of acres of fruit were unharvested because the growers could not afford to pick and haul the crop to market for $5 a ton. It is estimated that there are 65,000 acres of apricot producing land in Southern California and that a large majority of the fruit moves through Los Angeles and that the production this year will be in excess of 150,000 tons. Riverside county's yield has been 27,000 tons, so the canners report. The original estimate was 23,000 tons, but when the crop came to be harvested was more than predicted.

THE HOUSE FAMINE

WOULD-BE RESIDENTS MAY BE DRIVEN TO TENT HOUSES SAY REALTY DEALERS

Samuel P. Stoddard and Julius Kranz, real estate operators at 219 East Broadway, have joined the chorus about the shortage of houses. Mr. Stoddard says he never knew a time when so many people were turned away from Glendale. Commenting on conditions he said:

"Rentals are practically off the market. The situation for renters will become acute because the capitalists are going to build to sell, not to rent, so that people will be forced to buy or else go to some other city, but the fact is, this condition applies to the whole country. Even in Montreal, Canada, people are standing around to get the newspapers hot off the press and when they have answered the advertisements for tenants they find half a dozen wanting the same house. It is the same in the middle west and in the east, and is due to the stoppage of normal growth during the war. The roofs are sold over the heads of tenants who are forced to get out and there is nowhere to go unless to an apartment house which does not cater to family trade and where the conditions are: No children, no canary birds, no cats or dogs, and that rules out families."

When asked if he thought people were going to be forced to live in tents, he smiled and said yes, he feared so; that he rented a tent house the other day to people who insisted upon having it, and was ashamed of the transaction. The rental asked was 25 per cent. in advance of what the owner had been getting and it contained only a bedstead, stove and chair or two by way of furniture. As for the roof, you could throw a cat through it.

Mr. Kranz says it will have one good effect: It is going to make one hundred per cent. Americans instead of irresponsible drifters in the way of renters. People are going to own their homes, settle down and identify themselves with their communities and their country as they have never done before.

AFTER THE BACON

GLENDAL RESIDENTS EAGERLY WATCHING FOR NEXT SALE OF GOVERNMENT SUPPLIES

A number of Glendale people who were disappointed in failing to get a chance to buy some government bacon at 36 cents a pound when the big lot was sold in Los Angeles recently, and were hoping to get in on the next sale, scheduled for this week, may lose out again as the shipment has disappeared en route to Los Angeles and the railroad people have been unable as yet to trace it. So eager were the buyers at the first bacon sale that many of the stocks were cleaned out in 15 minutes and all in less than an hour. It is thought that the determined fight made by the government against the food hoarders and profiteers will result in substantial reductions in price of meats of all kinds, smoked and fresh, as well as other commodities. In Chattanooga, Tennessee, Wednesday, one million eggs in storage were seized by government agents and in other cities both eggs and meat were seized. This drastic action resulted in substantial reductions in price.

BY AUTO TO VERMONT

W. F. BUSS AND FAMILY WILL RAMBLE ALL THE WAY IN THEIR FORD

W. F. Buss and wife and daughter Helen, who have been living at 1008 North Central avenue, will start next Monday for Burlington, Vermont, near where they have bought a farm. They will go in their Ford by way of the National Old Trails Route as far as St. Louis, then go to Chicago and then on across Indiana, Ohio, New York, and down to Philadelphia. Then they will go on to Burlington. They expect to take thirty days for the trip. On Tuesday Mrs. Buss advertised her furniture, incubator, chicken, rabbits and garden hose for sale and before night she was fairly besieged by buyers. Everything was quickly sold, the most of it to Mr. McConnell of 1115 Campbell St., who will occupy the house when the Busses move east.

The Busses have been in California for 16 years past but their memories of the Far East were still so pleasant that they bought the farm in Vermont, deciding to go back to where they could enjoy the cold and snow.

C. L. To carry out the plan of "pitiless publicity" of prices, the Department of Agriculture has asked Congress to appropriate $502,000.

Secretary Houston in a letter to Senator Gillette stated that he proposes to establish a market news service to inform the people each day what prices they should pay or marketable foods.

LOYAL TO SOUTHLAND

MRS. I. M. TERRY RETURNS FROM NORTH DECLARING SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GOOD ENOUGH

Mrs. I. M. Terry, of 631 North Central avenue, has just returned from a two months' visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. K. Aston, and family, in Vallejo. While she was there the causeway that now connects Vallejo with Mare Island was completed and to celebrate the event July 1st the workmen at the Vallejo Shipyards were permitted to visit Mare Island which was kept closed to outsiders during the war and which was not thrown open until the causeway was done. Mrs. Terry and her relatives availed themselves of the privilege and while on the island had the pleasure of seeing the great battleship "California" which is being constructed there and which will be the largest and finest battleship in the world when completed. She also went all through the industrial district.

Vallejo, she says, is having a great building boom. During the past month Mare Island has been selected to be the main naval base of the Pacific Coast. While the naval population has diminished and the ten thousand sailors who were there during the war have dwindled to five hundred and are still being discharged, it is still a lively place with a great dearth of houses and a tremendous need of them in prospect.

Mrs. Terry says she had a lovely visit with the members of her family and made many interesting sight-seeing trips, but the weather was cold and disagreeable like winter and she told her friends she would have to return to Southern California to get some summer weather, though she had originally planned to remain there until fall.

Vallejo is short of water, she says, and the residents are allowed to irrigate but once a week, and for a short time. Of course there are no lawns or flowers. Glendale and especially her own home looked very beautiful to her when she got back. She has lived in the Golden State for twenty-seven years—six of those years in Glendale, and says she has convinced herself that Southern California is good enough for her.

LOST CLOSE GAME

PASADENA'S HUSKY BUNCH A LITTLE TOO MUCH FOR 1289'S OUTFIT

Nearly 100 enthusiastic boosters accompanied Capt. Joe Fortunato's team of bowlers from Elks' Lodge No. 1289 and so used are the Glendale lads to attacking the scalps of contesting teams to their belts that no one dreamed that defeat awaited them this time. But the Pasadena bunch was just a little bit too strong for them and they lost by a few points. It was a mighty good contest though as the appended score will show:

UNWILLINGLY LEAVES GLENDALE

Charles Albaeck, who has been living with his wife and two sons at 600 West Colorado, plying his trade of cigar maker, is a much disgusted man. He and his family like Glendale and want to stay here, but his lease has expired and cannot be renewed, so after vainly searching, night and day, for a house in Glendale he is preparing to move to another city.

WILL IT COME TO THIS?

Two young men with families are going to establish an auto repair garage in Glendale and are hunting vainly for houses to rent. Each may yet have to use a camping out tent to attach to his auto and thus provide temporary living quarters till some one puts up houses to rent.

J. P. Brown and family of 1152 Campbell street have moved to 901 Randolph street.

BALLOON EXCITEMENT

ARCADIA DIRIGIBLE LANDS DURING PRACTICE FLIGHT AT ADAMS AND PALMER AVE.

There was great excitement in Glendale Wednesday early in the afternoon when the rumor spread that a balloon had fallen in a canyon at the head of Palmer avenue near Adams street. A good many people had been watching the huge air traveler as it approached the city from the south and when it was seen to be descending the supposition was that something was wrong. Automobiles were commandeered to rush to the scene and boy newspaper carriers forgot their routes and sprinted for Adams street. A company of movie actors took up the trail and were there with cameras to register whatever events might transpire and to utilize the dramatic incident for the benefit of the actors they are featuring.

But there was no fall, just a landing. As explained by one of the passengers, a soldier from the Arcadia School who is qualifying as a pilot, it was a balloon, from Arcadia, which left Exposition Park at 10:30 and made a landing at "Two-Tree Hill" in Los Angeles. At 12:30 it ascended again and went up 3700 feet. There were six men in the car, viz., Captain Parriss, Lieut. Rahn, Lieut. Mooney, Lieut. Boxell, Master Electrician Richards of the First Balloon Company, and Sergt. First Class Johnson, of the First Balloon Company. After releasing five of the men in the basket Lieut. Boxell ascended for a solo flight in order to complete his course as a free balloon pilot and will now be entitled to a license. Four of the six men have now qualified. The other two have two more free balloon trips to make and a solo flight each before they can get their licenses. The two enlisted men of the party are now receiving flyer's pay.

When asked if they had any trouble the flyer interviewed quickly responded: "There was no accident of any sort, but you see that," pointing to wires sagging from the poles on which they were strung with which the balloon had collided. The wires proved to be city light and power transmitters. The telephone service was not affected. When last observed the solo flyer was about 5000 feet in the air, and traveling rapidly in a northeasterly direction.

INDIANAWARD

LEROY BOSSERMAN LEAVES ON ANNUAL BUSINESS TRIP ACCOMPANIED BY FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman and children, Mrs. Charles Bosserman, who has been spending several months in the home of her son, and Mr. and Mrs. Ashton, parents of Mrs. Bosserman, will leave Thursday night for La Porte, Indiana, to which Mr. Bosserman always makes a business trip at this season of the year. He is rejoicing in the fact that they are to be with him because he declares it is dreadfully lonesome for him without them. They will travel in a somewhat leisurely way, going via Oakland and over the Western Pacific in order to take in the famous Feather River scenery, as far as Ogden, there taking the Denver and Rio Grande and its connections to Chicago. On their return journey in September they will visit Mrs. Bosserman's sister in York, Nebraska, and will then go north to Seattle and visit Mrs. Bosserman's uncle in Centralia, Washington. Their homeward journey will take in Mount Shasta and bring them to Glendale about the 15th of October. During their stay in Indiana they will occupy a cottage at Sheridan Beach, on Lake Michigan, which is very near to both Michigan City and La Porte.

Weather—Fair, continued warm.

MERCHANTS AND ADVERTISING

During the past ten years a great many small towns have been on the down grade, from a commercial standpoint, owing to the inroads made on their business interests by the large cities, the mail order houses, farmers' unions and other forms of outside competition. Many a country merchant blames the automobile for taking his business away from him, but it is quite likely the automobile could be made to bring trade to him as readily as it is made to take it elsewhere. The fact is that the country merchant, like most of us, will blame everybody and everything for his condition before he will begin to lay the fault to himself.

There is a store in a city of less than 1,200 inhabitants, in the state of Ohio, which in the year 1916 sold over $400,000 worth of merchandise. It is the biggest country store in the United States and it has made its town one of the most important trading points in the state of Ohio. Yet that town has no better surrounding trade territory than any other town of 1,200. It was done simply by modern merchandising and advertising.

The merchant in the country town has as good a chance to sell merchandise as anyone in the world if he will only sell it; but a great many country merchants have allowed the modern methods to leave them away in the rear of the progress parade and have let some one else do the selling. In this connection it is safe to say that in the trade territory of nearly every small town, outside competition is doing more advertising twice over, than the local merchant. The only way the country town can successfully meet this competition is by using the same tactics. In short, the only remedy for a town that is going down hill is modern merchandising, and scientific, systematic and persistent advertising says the Clarion (La.) Clipper.

Modern merchandising is a science applied to the buying and selling of goods. Advertising is the same thing except that it has to do only with the selling—advertising is printed salesmanship. It is the science of psychology applied to writing news about merchandise.

It is admitted that the country merchant is handicapped in advertising, but that should make him all the keener. His outside competition has the advantage of expert advertising copy men to prepare the advertising copy or design the booklet or catalogue that is sent into the country merchant's territory. The business of one country merchant is too small for him to have an advertising man of his own, but his town, as a whole, is a big business enterprise. This is the situation that needs attention in many towns.

SPOTTING FRANCIS

A young woman was telling a friend about an acquaintance, a young man named Francis, whom the second girl had never seen.

"What sort of a chap is Francis, anyhow?" asked the listener.

"Well," the other replied, after a moment's thought, "if ever you see two men in a corner and one looks bored to death, the other one is Francis."

Personals
Mrs. G. L. Head and family are spending several weeks in Santa Monica.
H. M. Butts and wife and son Horatio went up above Ventura, Sunday, to enjoy several days of camping and surf fishing. They expect to be home Friday.
W. H. Harrison of 208 East Cypress avenue spent the week-end as the guest of his son in Long Beach, where he witnessed the arrival of the Pacific Fleet.
Mrs. Eustace B. Moore will take her Sunday School class on an outing to Long Beach on Thursday. They will go early and come home late and spend the day on the sand.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sanford of Sycamore Canyon Road have gone to Redondo to spend the day. They are accompanied by Mrs. Mayo, daughter of Mrs. Sanford, and her little son.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Goudie, Sr., visited the fleet at San Pedro Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Goudie's father, John Goss, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Goudie, Jr., and the Misses Clara and Grace Goudie.

Miss Edith Tyler, who formerly lived, with her sisters, Misses Pearl and Elsie, at 363 Salem street, has bought a home at 623 North Maryland and they have moved in. Miss Edith is a teacher in the Columbus Avenue School.

Oliver Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Clark of 420 West Elk avenue, has arrived home after a 4-months' visit with relatives in Morency and other points in Michigan. After experiencing extreme weather, both cold and heat, he thinks California will be good enough for him.

Eustace B. Moore of 1259 South Maryland avenue is attending the Great Council of the Improved Order of Red Men which is being held this week in San Jose. He now holds the office of Grand Sachem of the State of California. Mrs. Moore expects him to return in about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald of South Maryland have gone to Seal Beach for a vacation outing. They were accompanied by Mrs. McDonald's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guernsey, and by her mother, Mrs. Harrison. The party will be away about two weeks.

Mrs. Fannie D. Shugart of 222 North Belmont street, has returned from a two weeks' outing at Long Beach, much improved in health. Her daughter, Mrs. Goewey, who has been in a critical condition, is improving and will remain at the beach until September 1st.

Mrs. M. G. Musser, of 235 West Windsor Road has secured a position as assistant book-keeper at the Hinkley-Beach Cannery in Burbank. She says their season will not close until Dec. 1st. They are working now on peaches. The skins are removed from the fruit by the lye process, saving much time over the old style of peeling with a knife.

Charles Cushing of 1035 Mariposa street and his sister, Mrs. Eckstein, returned to Glendale Tuesday. He has been attending a summer school for librarians at Riverside, and will return to his work in the branch library on Friday. Mrs. Eckstein is leaving to take up her residence on a mountain claim to which she is trying to perfect title.

Ernest Elliott, who is the proprietor of the fruit stand at 1331 East Colorado street, has just bought an up-to-date cider mill and is making a most delectable extract of apple. To insure its perfection and quality, the fruit from which it is made is carefully selected and all worm holes and rot are cut out. Fresh apple cider is quite a treat in this country and he is likely to do a thriving business.

Mrs. George Love of 325 West Colorado street is eagerly anticipating the arrival of her sister who has written that she is coming to Glendale about the first of September. She is now in Idaho, but her home for fourteen years or more has been in Washington, D. C., where she has held an important and responsible position under the government. She is coming with a view to locating here permanently if she finds property that pleases her.

At about 6:30 Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Tresslar, in a big car well loaded with all the paraphernalia for camping, and in appropriate khaki garb, left Glendale for the north. They were accompanied by their son William and a boy companion, and by Mrs. Tresslar's mother, and their objective was Lake Tahoe. They have cut loose from conventional life for several weeks and when they have stayed as long as they wish at Tahoe will go where fancy dictates.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kulp of 1211 East Wilson avenue had the pleasure, Wednesday of entertaining some old friends from Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Branson of San Bernardino. They came to California from the same Kansas town in which Mr. and Mrs. Kulp formerly lived. Mrs. Kulp's mother, Mrs. Mercer, is leaving today on the Santa Fe for Grants, N. M., where her daughter, Mrs. Morton, with whom she makes her home, lives.

CHURCH NIGHT AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN
Church night proved as popular as ever this week, there being more than thirty present last evening to partake of the supper prepared by the committee of ladies of the church. Prayer meeting followed, led by John M. Ray, the subject being "Peter, the Rock Apostle." Mr. Ray brought out many interesting features of this remarkable Bible character's life and was ably seconded by most of those present. Rev. Cole announced that there would be full services next Sunday morning and evening and confidently predicted a large attendance at all meetings.

LIEUT. ALFRED KNIGHT AT HOME
Lieut. Alfred W. Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Knight of 1305 East California avenue, arrived Tuesday evening and is leaving tonight for San Francisco to receive his discharge. He was met at the train by his parents and Jim Henry Ilse, but it was a very quiet home coming as he did not arrive on a troop train. The artillery organization of which he was a member was mobilized at Fort Monroe and most of the men in it were demobilized some time ago, but he was kept for other work. En route he stopped in Chicago to see his brother Arthur and family. The weather was very hot there and he was glad to find them established for the summer at Racine, Wis., which is on Lake Michigan and delightfully cool. During his stay his brother took a vacation to visit with him. It was a disappointment on reaching home to find so many of his friends gone from Glendale. He has made no definite plans for the future as yet. His mother reports he is perfectly well and looks fine, adding that she cannot be thankful enough that such is the case.

MISS YARNELL HOME FROM TRIP
Miss Sadie Yarnell, teacher in the Columbus Avenue School has returned to her home at 318 Myrtle street after a seven weeks' visit at Santa Cruz, with a sister. Her brother-in-law, Mr. Henry, has recently bought a 13-acre place in the Santa Cruz Mountains and the family is much pleased with it. It is not only a beautiful place, with redwoods and running streams, but has a commodious house as well. They are feasting on the varied fruits and vegetables already on the place.

DAUGHTER GONE, SON HAS RETURNED
Mrs. G. W. Smith of 328 Milford informs the Evening News that her daughter, Leila, kindergarten teacher at the Colorado Street School, has been granted a year's leave of absence and has accepted a civil service position in the Treasury Department at Washington and left last Sunday to commence her work. Weaver H. Smith, her brother, recently returned from Hoboken, N. J., to which place he was sent when transferred, after the war closed, from the 91st Division to the 13th Regular Infantry.

ON SAD ERRAND
Rev. Clifford A. Cole, pastor of Central Christian Church, went to Beaumont this morning on a very sad errand. It was to preach the funeral sermon of Mrs. W. E. Lee, who died of tuberculosis. Mr. Lee is a Christian preacher and he and Mr. Cole were classmates in Drake University for some years when both were studying for the ministry. Their lives have crossed on many occasions since and the warm friendship that knit them together in college days has grown with the years.

HUMANE TEAMSTERS
Mrs. Harrison of 218 West Windsor Road, who is quite an active and interested member of the Humane Society highly commends the treatment given their horses by the men who are doing street work on West Windsor. It has pleased her greatly and she has been glad these hot days to show them the courtesy of taking them a cool drink occasionally and offering them a pail with which to water their horses. She hopes if the temperature remains at its present altitude that the housewives on the next street they go to will keep up the good work; for they will soon be moving on.

SALEM STREET ENTERTAINERS
The children of Salem street gave a very interesting program on Wednesday of this week. The admission was one cent. The program was as follows:
In the Usual Way, Miss Hazel Emerson.
Talking in Their Sleep, Miss Ruth Bullard, Miss Hazel Emerson, Miss Marian Emerson.
The Wonderful Scholar, Mrs. Smith, Miss Hazel Emerson; Mr. Martin, Miss Ruth Bullard; Ellen, Miss Marian Emerson.
Disappointment, Cary, Miss Marian Emerson; Lucy, Miss Ruth Bullard.
Nursery Rhymes, Miss Ruth Bullard, Miss Marian Emerson, Miss Hazel Emerson.
America, Chorus.
Joseph Snell, stage manager.
After which a fish pond and fortune telling and a highly exciting croquet contest were enjoyed. The afternoon was a great success in spite of its being the 13th.

TROUBLES OF ESTERLY FAMILY
Miss Emma Esterly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Esterly, has been at Thornycroft Hospital for two weeks and last Thursday underwent an operation for acute appendicitis. She is doing nicely and may be moved to her own home the last of the week. Her brother, Corporal W. W. Esterly, has not recovered from the shrapnel wounds in his lungs and is still under the care of army surgeons. Mr. and Mrs. John Esterly have abandoned their plan of building a home on Central avenue and have purchased an eight-room house on 36th street in Los Angeles, with a four-room house in the rear. They are planning to move to their new home next week.

BEACH PARTY
A jolly party of Glendale ladies motored to Hermosa Beach Wednesday to spend the day with Mrs. Chas. Temple, who has an apartment there. The party included Mrs. E. U. Emery, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. H. D. Goss and Mrs. H. H. Martin of Los Angeles, and the ladies were joined by Mesdames W. E. Evans and C. W. McFadden after reaching the beach. Luncheon was preceded by a swim in the surf and after a pleasant afternoon together the party came home by moonlight.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE
The children of Mrs. W. G. Watson happily surprised their mother Tuesday evening at her home, 126 North Cedar street, in celebration of her 69th birthday, which fell upon the day following. Four daughters were present, viz., Mrs. Emma Reed, Mrs. Mary Peoples, Miss Alice Watson and Mrs. Nettie Turner, and two sons—T. W. Watson and Ivy Watson, also the sister of the guest of honor, Mrs. Cay, and three daughters of Los Angeles, and Miss Ruth Head, of Glendale, who is a close neighbor. Mrs. Watson received many gifts as souvenirs of the occasion, and a very pleasant social evening was spent by the company.

M. P. HARRISON BUYS HOME
Miss Minnie Creed has sold her beautiful home at 505 North Louise street to M. P. Harrison of the First National Bank, who will occupy the property next week. Miss Creed will move into an apartment in Los Angeles owned by an old friend, Mrs. J. R. Foraker, 1542 Ingraham street. Mrs. Foraker's husband was a near relative of the late Senator Foraker of Ohio.

ENTERTAIN BOY IN BLUE
Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Goudie, Sr., of 453 W. Maple Ave. entertained at a prettily-appointed dinner, Monday evening, Gunner William Gordon, of the battleship "Texas." Later they were joined by Messrs. Wm. Johns and E. Shurle of Los Angeles. Mr. Shurle is a talented pianist, having been on the Orpheum Circuit, and a delightful musical evening was enjoyed.

JOSEPH MARPLE IV.
Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Marple of 215 West Palmer are the very happy parents of a ten-pound boy, born Friday night, August 8, 1919, at the Clara Barton Hospital in Los Angeles. He has been named Joseph and is the fourth Joseph in line. When asked if he would be provided with a coat of many colors, the doctor assented with the intimation that he stood ready to give him anything under the sun within reach, but declared he would see to it that it wasn't a turn coat, and that if he ever saw any disposition of that kind he would tan his coat for him.

BIG CANTALOUPE CROP
O. S. Patton, near Zelzah, has the biggest cantaloupe acreage in Los Angeles county. He has sold his entire output, estimated by him at 50,000 crates, for $2.60 a crate, bringing him considerably more than $100,000. The crates used in this section are the same size as lettuce crates, not the little ones Imperial Valley shipments are made in. They would hold 125 to 150 of the Imperial size melons, but of the larger ones raised hereabouts from 50 to 75 are required. The Mexicans picking the melons make from $10 to $15 a day.

FILMED THE CITY
The city of Burbank was recently filmed, scenes being taken on nearly all of the streets and at the manufacturing. These films were put on the screen at the local theatre and duplicates are to be made to send to eastern cities as an advertisement of Burbank.
